

NATIVE AMERICAN WISDOM & WAYS
On the WIND RIVER RESERVATION
Where 2 Cultures Meet!

presented by Centennial TravelPoints & Heritage Tours
June 18 - 21, 2012

You're invited... to visit Wyoming's Wind River Reservation.

We'll be guests of the Shoshone and Arapaho people who share these lands. Walk in the steps of the early immigrants as we explore nearby South Pass City, South Pass, Atlantic City and Willie's Handcart Site.

Experience history from a different perspective!

DAY 1- MONDAY, JUNE 18

HOME TO WIND RIVER RESERVATION, WY

Travel north into Wyoming. The scenery is barren, rugged, yet beautiful. Lunch in Rawlins at CoCo's. Check into our hotel, which is on the reservation-for the next 3 nights. Dinner and evening on own. Relax, explore the hotel or choose to try your luck at the Wind River Casino. (L)

DAY 2- TUESDAY, JUNE 19

DISCOVER THE WIND RIVER RESERVATION

Spend the day with our Native American guide discovering the Wind River Reservation. Get acquainted with both the Arapaho and Shoshone people who live here. Stops include St. Stephen's Mission & School, Shoshone Cultural Center, Sacajawea's grave, Chief Washakie's grave, the Arapaho museum at St. Michael's Mission. Enjoy a box lunch. Visit Sinks Canyon State Park. See the "disappearing" Popo Agie River. Keep your eye out for critters; the park is home to elk, bighorn, moose, pronghorn and deer. Return to our hotel for dinner together and a presentation of the Northern Arapaho Experience. You'll enjoy this entertaining glimpse into another culture. (B, Box Lunch, D)

DAY 3- WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20

SETTLERS & IMMIGRANTS: ALONG THE TRAILS

A local guide joins us for the day as we enjoy a look at this area from another perspective: The immigrants and settlers. Visit South Pass. Between 1840 and 1860, over 300,000 travelers crossed the Continental Divide here en route to a new life. Step back in time to the gold rush days in South Pass City, once a boomtown, now an outdoor living history museum. Lunch at the Atlantic City Mercantile. Tour Willie's Handcart Site and learn the story of Mormon settlers and their trek west. Tonight enjoy a farewell dinner at our hotel. A tribal member will join us with further insights into his culture and his world. (B, L, D)

DAY 4- THURSDAY, JUNE 21
WIND RIVER RESERVATION TO HOME

Depart after breakfast. Visit an “undiscovered gem:” the Wind River Cultural Heritage Museum. Browse wonderful exhibits of local history and culture. Lunch on own in Casper, known as the “Hub of Trails,” where the Oregon, Mormon, California, Pony Express, Bridger and Bozeman trails met. Return home with a new appreciation of the Wind River Country and her people. (B)

For more information about this area, Margaret Coel writes a fictional series of murder mysteries set on the Wind River Reservation.
